

OBBS HANDCRAFTED BREWS

Brew-Master - Scott Meyer /Assistant Brewer - Seldon Sawyer

Ölsch THE thirst quencher! Brewed in the Kölsch style, it's a refreshing, pale, delicate beer with a lively aroma imparted by Liberty, Mt. Hood, and Perle hops. (4.8% abv.)

Hugh Hefeweizen Bavarian Wheat-Beer yeast gives this yeasty-frothy brew its distinctive spicy flavor. (5.6% abv)

Lemongrass Wheat Ale- A zesty golden hefeweizen infused with a potent smack of Lemongrass. The flavor is crisp, tart and refreshing - Medal winner!! (5.2% abv.)

Altimeter A smooth and malty amber Alt with a spicy hop character. Alt means old in German and refers to a style of ale brewed before lager yeast was discovered. (5.8% abv)

Hurley Burley Brown Ale Richly roasted flavors from dark malts is complemented by mild apple-cinnamon spice aromas from a blend of British and Northwest Ale yeasts. (7.1% abv.)

Stormy Roses Licorice Stout Licorice root here is subtle, but shows up in the finish. It's an old English brewing trick used to mellow out the intense coffee-dark chocolate flavors of Roasted Barley in a dry Irish style stout. (6.3% abv.)

Iron-Binnacle Baltic Porter The style originates from the days of yore, when tall ships plied frigid Icelandic seas. It's a gargantuan porter, silky smooth, exuding aromas of raisins, nuts, chocolate and leather. A hale and hearty brew for captain and crew! (9.3% abv.) Served in 8 oz. Brandy snifters
